NAPIER OPERATIC SOCIETY

DECEMBER 2014

A Message From the Napier Operatic Society President

Hi Everyone,

Well the end of the year is coming up fast and we are into that silly season already, I'm sure they start putting out Christmas stuff in the shops earlier every year.

Well "Joseph" is over and was a great success, thanks to those wonderful kids onstage and backstage. There were certainly some outstanding kids in both areas who will hopefully continue to do shows for us in the future. Sonya and her team did a great job once again, thanks for keeping this important aspect of our yearly agenda going and thriving.

James and his team are already under way with rehearsals for "Evita" and the cast are already being worked hard. Congratulations to all the successful auditionees who made the cast. From what I have seen so far it is a very strong cast for this powerful show and I am looking forward to seeing this onstage.

I must also thank Steve, James and Anthony for helping me clean and transform the scenery/workshop area over the last couple of weeks and also Don Hurley for his contribution of a storage system for the workshop. Also Bev and Sue for the hours of work you put into the sorting of the new costume storage rooms. Thank you all very much it is very much appreciated.

The Christmas Party is coming up and I am looking forward to catching up with you all, hopefully out in the courtyard in the stunning Hawke's Bay sun.

See you soon, keep safe over the crazy season,
Marc

NOTICES

Norah Griffen is now home from Wellington Hospital after an eye operation and I am sure she would appreciate a call.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Hi All!

What a year! I've thoroughly enjoyed my first year as editor, thank you for all the feedback, it has been much appreciated! Slowly but surely I'm adding more and more content, my hope is that one day the Camelot will be a mouthpiece for the society, representing the opinions and collective knowledge this society is rich with. Editorials, thinkpieces, and opinion pieces on theatre as a whole. The Camelot in my opinion needs to represent the society as a whole, whilst educating and giving people more insight into the everyday runnings of theatre at Napier Operatic Society. This will be my goal in the next year, and I hope there are people out there willing to share their words with the society, to be put into the Camelot! Please contact me at noseditor@outlook.com if you have any ideas, I'd love to hear them! Have a good Christmas and New Year!

Cheers,
Anthony

CONGRATULATIONS
TO THE
JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING
TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT
TEAM
ON HAVING A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

JOSEPH- ITS A WRAP!

The Napier Operatic Society Theatre School has just concluded another highly successful production featuring 55 members of up and coming actors, singers and dancers. A 9 performance season saw Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat being staged by NOS for the 4th time. This has previously been done with 2 adult productions and now 2 theatre school productions.

People say- why do it again? The answer is simple- the music is timeless, funny, lively and extremely memorable. The next reply would be - it incorporates so many performers!!!

When the theatre school was established in 2000 the dream was to have our youth in theatre become our adult members. The key to this was to have as many involved as possible.

This season we had 55 youngsters on stage, 9 on the crew areas of lighting, follow spot, props and make up and also helping with front of house. This production also saw 6 adults that were founding members of the theatre school now taking on management/head of department personnel. The dream came true!!!

I thank every family, every performer, every support person and every patron that supported this production.

Yours in theatre,

Sonya Aifai

Director and Founder of The Napier Operatic Theatre School

Have you been on the NOS Facebook page?

The acceleration of social media in recent years has been startling. Peoples lives seemingly revolve around it. "If it's not on Facebook, how can we be sure it really exists?" Because of this, social media advertising is at an all time high. This has many advantages over print media, including the instantaneous nature of it. Gone are the days where you would need to wait an entire month for the latest news from publications (Ed note: ahem), perhaps NOS can finally give our carrier pigeon a rest!

Naturally, NOS wants to jump on the social media bandwagon in a big way. Production awareness, competitions, video show trailers via YouTube, and just general theatre musings without spamming or being intrusive.

It's wonderful seeing people of all ages embrace it already! Having an entire society connected in such a way opens up new opportunities for NOS and the way we approach theatre and event organisation. So if you haven't already, jump onto the NOS Facebook page and 'Like' us, comment on posts, and share news!
